Whiskey River Soap Company, LLC

 Developed eye-catching packaging designs and witty product labels that aligned with the brand's playful yet edgy aesthetic, ensuring strong shelf presence and consumer appeal.

Innovative graphic designer with a passion for creating visually striking and meaningful designs. Passionate about transforming visual concepts into compelling consumer experiences, I'm eager to collaborate with a forward-thinking team where I can drive creative breakthroughs and contribute

- Designed engaging in-store and trade show displays, incorporating bold visuals and strategic layout principles to maximize customer interaction and brand visibility.
- Strengthened brand recognition by refining brand elements, maintaining visual consistency across print and digital platforms, and evolving the identity to stay fresh while honoring its core essence.
- Created visually cohesive, well-organized product catalogs that effectively showcased the company's unique offerings, balancing typography, imagery, and storytelling.
- Designed compelling sales decks, brochures, and marketing assets to support sales initiatives, helping to communicate product value with humor and style.
- Crafted engaging email templates with strong typography, vibrant imagery, and well-structured layouts to enhance customer engagement and drive conversions.
